

Somebody Loves You CRUSADES

October 30, 2007

Dear Pastor:

As I read the newspaper and watch the news, I am moved with compassion for the people of Los Angeles and compelled to reach out to the lost through the Somebody Loves You Crusade - Los Angeles in 2008. I would like to personally invite you to join me at the LA Convention Center on Thursday, November 29, 2007, at 10AM in the South Hall meeting room 304 (A & B) for a time of worship, prayer and spiritual preparation for this crusade. The Lord has already opened so many doors in answer to the many prayers that have been sent up!

Our staff meets, in one accord, every Monday, Wednesday and Friday to pray and lift up the crusade and those souls needing salvation. We know that only through God's Spirit, and prayer, will we see souls saved at this crusade.

It is my desire to extend this prayer time to the pastors and their staff that have entered into a partnership with Somebody Loves You Ministries, to bring the message of hope and salvation to Los Angeles and the surrounding communities. I would challenge you to not only attend this Prayer Meeting for the pastors but to set aside time with your staff to pray for the people of your community.

As we see what is happening in the Middle East, we must have an urgency to reach those slipping into eternity without Jesus Christ. We must warn the people using the very words that Jesus gives to us in Luke 21:28, "Now when these things begin to happen, look up and lift up your heads, because your redemption draws near."

Please join us, to make a difference in your community - the price has already been paid!

Souls for Christ...
